COLLAPSE OF DOLLAR: To Radically Change The World

March 26, 2015 – DON HANK posted today an article from Gerald Celente titled This Is Going To Radically Change The World. Hank made the following comments about the upcoming END OF THE DOLLAR IN WORLD TRADE (aka collapse of the dollar):

Of course, Gerald. It IS going to change the world, and the US elites can't do anything about it.

But my articles provide details on this topic that Celente doesn't mention.

The most important detail is the interview with Chinese monetary expert Chen Yulu which had never been translated into English before my translation (<http://www.americandailyherald.com/pundits/donald-hank/item/warning-from-top-chinese-monetary-policy-maker>) was published. This was HUGE news, but went largely unnoticed in the West, most likely because of normalcy bias and the usual msm blacking out of bad news. The main details of that interview are here, which you NEED to know:

1--Europe and Asian countries calling themselves US "allies" had set up RMB clearing centers over a year ago as part of what can only be called a dedollarization movement. If you do a search for "decollarization," at major news sites like NYT, Stratfor and WSJ, you find not a word about dedollarization as a worldwide trend. This was an OMINOUS sign that Europe was preparing, or preparing for, the end of the dollar in world trade! The fact that they joined the Chinese bank is just part of this trend.

2--Chen said that within 3-5 years (but that was last year, so that would be 2-4 years now), the RMB would be the third most widely used currency in international trade. That was not a supernatural prediction based on signs in the heavens. It was based on the trends in the RII (renminbi internationalization index) that the Renmin University, of which Chen is the rector, had been tracking for several years.

Celente also fails to mention that Saudi Arabia, the country that props up the dollar (as I explained here <http://www.americandailyherald.com/pundits/donald-hank/item/how-the-petrodollar-perpetuates-islamic-terror>), has joined the Chinese AIIB. That is HUGE news and shows that the Saudis may be ready to abandon the petrodollar agreement.

If they do that, then there will be no rational reason for investors to keep using dollars at all in world trade. It looks like they are waking up.

The collapse of the dollar has been predicted for years and I think people are getting inured to hearing about it and aren't paying attention. They prefer blood moon tetrads to objective details.

Celente's analyses are superficial at best and he is not much more than a salesman although his predictions can't be far from the truth since he is one of the few actually tracking REAL data on the abandonment of the US as a financial leader. US investors are in for such a shock!

Here is his article on the radical change (which you could have learned about in greater depth by reading my commentaries at renewamerica.us and American Daily Herald):

The American Resistance Party likewise is forecasting a total collapse of not only the worldwide economy but there is going to be a shakeup in America that is going to shake every groggy unprepared citizen to the core.

Corruption is festering all over our nation. Everywhere we look we can find rampant corruption in America. Our federal government is a cesspool, our state and local governments are cesspools, our corporations are cesspools and unfortunately average Americans seem to be willing to wallow in these pools of filth. As corruption becomes widespread in America, trust in our fiat money has broken down. It is not difficult to forecast that our economic Ponzi scheme will soon end. No nation can function without trust in their national money system. Why are we surprised that China is going to totally destroy our fiat money? So now we will get what we deserve!
