ACTION ALERT

MUSLIMS Cannot Be Compatible

December 9, 2015 – The White House Press Secretary Josh Earnest (on Dec 8, 2015) said Donald Trump’s assertion that all Muslim people should be barred from entering the U.S, disqualifies him from serving as president. Earnest said:

“The question now is about the rest of the Republican Party and whether or not they’re going to be dragged into the dust-bin of history with him.”

Earnest’s comments come on the heels of a number of the GOP’s other frontrunners cautiously demurring from Trump’s position while refusing to flat-out denounce his racist demagoguery.

House Speaker Paul Ryan insisted that religious freedom was a “fundamental Constitutional principle” while also insisting that it wasn’t his place to chime in on the election.

From Earnest’s perspective, though, these relatively gentle admonitions aren’t enough.

He said, that if they are so cowed by Mr. Trump and his supporters that they are not willing to stand by the values enshrined in the Constitution, then they have no business serving as President of the United States themselves.

The American Resistance Party disagrees with Earnest and stands with Trump. Muslims who believe in the Quran cannot be compatible with the US Constitution.
