FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE ACTION ALERT

MUSLIM DEADLY DISEASES Sweep European Union

December 10, 2015 – WND posted an article titled, "Resistance to last-resort antibiotic reaches Europe." They report:

"...The discovery in Denmark, with evidence of MCR-1 dating back to 2012 in Germany, is made worse by the recent massive influx of migrants from the Mideast."

"Dr. Jan-Thorsten Gräsner, director of Germany's Institute for Rescue and Emergency Medicine, said approximately five percent of the recent influx of asylum seekers – or about 75,000 newcomers – are bringing resistant germs with them, reported the Gatestone Institute."

"German public-health officials are reporting the reappearance of diseases long absent for years."

"Dr. Michael Melter, chief physician at University Hospital Regensburg, told Die Welt, "Some of the ailments I have not seen for 20 or 25 years," he said, "and many of my younger colleagues have actually never seen them."

"Officials are watching for outbreaks of both bacterial and viral diseases, including Crimean Congo hemorrhagic fever, diphtheria, Ebola, hepatitis, HIV/AIDS, malaria, measles, meningitis, mumps, polio, scabies, tetanus, tuberculosis, typhus and whooping cough."
