JERRY LEWIS:
"Refugees should stay where they are!"

December 29, 2015 –Jerry Lewis gave an exclusive interview with Raymond Arroyo on World Over (12-17-2015).

Raymond Arroyo, host of "World Over," asked Lewis about the horrific emergence of ISIS. Lewis first wondered aloud where our NATO allies were to tackle the "world" problem and then commented that they are "asking to be stopped."

And Lewis declared... "Refugees should stay where they are!"

Lewis is one of America's best known funny-men with a career spanning more than six decades and a celebrated heart for charitable work. And the 89-year-old Jerry Lewis isn't slowing down for a second. In this new interview he's quick to offer his take on current events by praising Donald Trump, slamming President Obama, and wondering aloud why we aren't putting a ban on allowing more Muslims to immigrate to America in this dangerous era of global jihad.

According to The Daily Wire, Lewis was interviewed by the Catholic EWTN outlet, and near the end of the chat the talk turned to current events, including the upcoming presidential election.
