FRANKLIN GRAHAM: Iran Deal 'Death Sentence for Israel'

July 17, 2015 – Franklin Graham, son of famed evangelist preacher Billy Graham, is calling for prayers for Congress as it debates a nuclear proliferation deal with Iran – and says he agrees with Donald Trump's belief any deal should have demanded the release of four Americans being held prisoner.

Here's the Facebook post of the head of the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association and the global charity Samaritan's Purse:

"President Barack Obama is heralding his nuclear deal with Iran as "another chapter in the pursuit of a more helpful and more hopeful world." I don't think so. Iran has a history of funding terrorism around the world, and they are Israel's worst enemy. We are alienating our decades-long allies and cozying up to their enemies and ours. And Donald J. Trump was exactly right when he said, "we have four prisoners over there. We should have said 'Let the prisoners out.'" One of these prisoners is our friend Pastor Saeed Abedini, and I haven't heard the names of any of these four U.S. citizens mentioned in the negotiations with Iran. Some are calling this deal a potential death sentence for the State of Israel. Pray for our Congress that God would give them wisdom as they debate this important agreement. There's a lot at stake here."
