LARRY KLAYMAN: 6 supremes must be impeached

June 25, 2015 – www.wnd.com reported that Larry Klayman demands that six of the justices of the Supreme Court be impeached. WND reports:

In the wake of Thursday's King v. Burwell Supreme Court decision upholding Obamacare, at least one attorney who has argued cases before the court is calling for the justices who filed the majority opinion to be impeached.

All six of them need to go, says Larry Klayman, founder of Freedom Watch.

All six are guilty of abandoning the rule of law, says the longtime government watchdog. In its place they have substituted the advancement of their own political agendas.

Larry Klayman, founder of Freedom Watch says:

"These six justices have violated their own long-established rules of interpretation for applying statutes to instead advance their own political objectives or burnish their public persona," Klayman said in reaction to the decision. "Such personal goals corrode the role of the court. The justices abandoned the rule of law and have become merely a political focus group."
