MASKED LT GENERAL Unschool'd in the Constitution

May 26, 2015 – Colonel Harry Riley, U.S. Army (Ret.) posted the following letter of an unknown LT General in patriotsforamerica.ning.com. The letter was as follows:

FROM A RETIRED LT. GENERAL

The following is the first of two emails I received from this Lt. General. The email printed here is identical to what he sent to me.

Sir,

After reading your recent article "America's Survival Depends on Stopping Jade Helm" on May 22nd, I felt compelled to write you. I was recently forced into retirement by President Obama along with 270 other flag officers after a distinguished career beginning on my 17th birthday when I enlisted in the Army.

I am not angry about being forced out (at least anymore) because it gave me the time to think about what is about to happen to America and what I could, would and should do.

In 2012 I was part of a Pentagon study which estimated that roughly 60% of active duty Army personal will side with the American people as will 80% of the National Guard when (not if Sir) the order is given to openly enslave the American people under Martial Law. Somewhere around 90% the Marines will side with the American people, the Navy as a whole will stay out of the fight choosing to be the last line of defense against foreign intervention. It is widely believed that in excess of 75% of the Air Force will side with government.

There are many within the active military both officers and senior NCO's who see what is happening and what is coming. Many more than you can possibly imagine will not follow an unconstitutional order to move against the American people, nor will they allow foreign troops to openly attack American citizens. This would be the start of a fight these foreign forces could not possibly win as we will be fighting for our families, home, country and freedom. The Russian forces currently on American soil have no stomach for a fight with the American people, I know because I speak fluent Russian and I have met them and many of their officers, when push comes to shove they will stand down and go home. I have met President Putin and I found him to be a Nationalist, the man believes in Russia and while he is interested in expanding Russian influence and power it is because of the threat he sees from America, England and NATO not because he has designs on taking over America.

I was part of a major Pentagon study concerning how our military might react to the coming civil war, our forces will break down into three sides, Patriots, Government and those who choose not to take a side but will protect and defend civilians. With modern antiaircraft systems (mobile and man portable) air power will be all but useless. What we will see is a ground war, city by city, street by street. Additionally what is coming will be unlike any civil war in history, it will be very personal, the government will call the Patriots forces terrorists and traitors, they will arrest, intern, torture and murder suspected terrorists families, this will result in bloody reprisals which will start a vicious cycle lasting for years.

I have a son and a friend of the family both of which I am proud to say are excellent and decorated officers, my son commands a wing of Apache helicopters and the family friend commands an armored brigade. We were having dinner a few weeks ago with several current and former officers. As the evening wore on the mood turned somber as this very subject came up, they have all discussed this including what to do. As the evening concluded both of my son and my friend's son, and to a man, all of the other officers O's came together with one statement.

"Sir, when you need us we will be there".

I am personally aware that many such meetings have taken place with similar pledges of support.

I have tried to teach my these young officers and the men under my command two overriding principals:

Never start a fight but always finish it, and when going into battle let your enemy know through your words, deeds and actions that while I might die today, know that I will not die easily and God willing I will not die alone.

With Regards and Respect
Lt. General ___ (ret)

COMMENT OF MR. EDWARD C NOONAN (Founder of American Resistance Party): So WHO is this chicken-clucking LT GENERAL? This so-called letter is unsigned and the author is unidentified! As far as I am concerned this clucker is a traitor to our nation and to our now DEAD CONSTITUTION! He offends me in the first sentence when he refers to the Illegal Alien that is squatting in the white house as pResident! What a brainless bum! (both of them!) Mr. Soetoro (aka BHO) was born in Kenya, and he is a citizen of Indonesia and also a citizen of all 28 nations of the Marxist European Union... Our constitution demands that our POTUS be a NATURAL BORN CITIZEN. Natural means that there can be no ALIEN ASPECT OF ONE'S BIRTH. How can Mr. Soetoro prove there is no alien-ness to his birth? I say stand them both in front of a military firing squad!

It is clear that this masked LT GENERAL is unschooled in the constitution. He is what I call a "domestic enemy"!
