KING DAYTON OF MINNESOTA: 'Find Another State'

October 21, 2015 – WND.com printed an article titled, "REFUGEE PUSHBACK GROWING IN MULTIPLE STATES." It was penned by Leo Hohmann. Hohmann says, "In St. Cloud, Minnesota, a group of concerned citizens became visibly upset at a townhall last Tuesday when Gov. Mark Dayton announced that anyone who is not comfortable with that state's growing diversity, including its expanding Somali refugee population, "should find another state" because Minnesota's economy "cannot expand based on white, B+, native-born citizens. We don't have enough."

The American Resistance Party states that this statement of Dayton and other Governors (see article at WND.com) in the United States is unconstitutional and unlawful. Article IV, Section 4, demands that "The United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a Republican Form of Government...." The definition of a "Republican form of government" is a government which derives all its powers directly or indirectly from the great body of the people; and is administered by persons holding their offices during pleasure, for a limited period, or during good behavior."

Gov. Dayton has issued a decree that only royalty (a sitting governor cannot be considered to be royalty) is allowed to screech. He has taken a title of nobility that he has no constitutional authority to wear. Article I, Section 9, states, "No Title of Nobility shall be granted by the United States," and most state constitutions have similar provisions. Our Preamble states that "WE THE PEOPLE" decides what laws we have through our legislatures. Dayton has no state constitutional amendment which allows him to order state citizens to make his state a "sanctuary state" (like it is).
