FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE ACTION ALERT

GERMANY OVERWHELMED By Muslim Chaos & Riots

October 30, 2015 – DON HANK forward the following email and states:

"And as for the Afghans, the EU has decreed that they are economic refugees from middle class families and they will all be sent back to face the raging Taliban. It is ALL politics!"

Don

P.S. Please circulate to family and friends it is important to know what is happening otherwise we could find ourselves being forced to take thousands of these Muslim refugees whether we like it or not if we remain in the EU.

From: Neil Date: 27/10/2015.

(This is from a retired RAF officer who served in the sixties and is now working and living in Germany.)

Dear Friends,

Europe is now in total chaos and I think that you should know about it.

I have waited a week or so to see how things would develop and to glean more information before presenting the facts.

As you may know from the media, the flood of refugees from war-torn countries and those who are economic immigrants, into Europe, has reached ridiculous proportions - to the extent that Hungary and other Balkan states have now closed their borders and Turkey is considering doing the same. No news of this is forthcoming from the European media.

Angela Merkel in an ill-advised speech to the Bundestag welcomed all refugees to Germany and the floodgates opened. In my view, this was all pre-planned from the beginning with the Pope's appeal last year for "Islam to move closer to Christianity". This was then followed up via the Italian Government instructing the Italian Navy "to rescue all boat refugees and bring them to Italy".

As a result, it is reported that some 8000 people per day are now entering Europe via various routes. Most of these are young males between 17 and 25. The result is chaos, as you can imagine.

Here in Saarland we have been overwhelmed with refugees mainly young males with some families. In Lebach, some ten kilometres from here, a camp for 200 was set up and a further 100 added to this last week. The politicians, local government and religious leaders have fallen over themselves to bring them in and cater for them.

And so what is the result? In Ventimaglia near Monte Carlo, the refugees banded together (organized by their smart phones) and overran the market, stealing or destroying everything and practically ransacked the town.

Here in Lebach, a group entered a supermarket and just took what they wanted and destroyed the rest. When the Manageress confronted them, they called up their friends and smashed the place to bits. The police arrived but were overwhelmed. The supermarket is now closed.

Yesterday, my friends rang from Weissenfels near Leipzig to tell me that two supermarkets and a Kaufland store in Halle suffered the same fate. More news is coming in from all over Germany reporting the same situation.

The media report none of this.

Many people have demonstrated against being overrun by immigrants. In Weissenfels poor German families were thrown out of an eight flat apartment block and 70 refugees were moved in. Small towns of some 2000 to 3000 population are now over-run by some 5000 to 6000 refugees.

Civil dissatisfaction is starting to rise and is boiling just under the surface. Europe is in chaos and the do-gooders have totally lost control of the situation. Islam has overwhelmed us.

For the Syrian and Afghan refugees, I have every sympathy as their countries are being devastated and they therefore need help. They should get it. But for the rest, who are just economic refugees, wanting to come to richer countries to get benefits, in my view, the state authorities must be firm and send them back. However, perhaps it is already too late.

Anyway, I thought that you should know that the situation here is pretty grim and I fail to see how it can be resolved. I can only foresee a police state of affairs arising...
