LIBERTY COUNSEL: "Persecution of Christians is Underway"

October 27, 2015 – Mathew Staver, Founder and Chairman of the Liberty Counsel writes, "In case you missed my important message from last evening, you should be forewarned that you and I may now be deemed "domestic terrorists" by the Department of Justice."

And he writes, "A dangerous new chapter in the persecution of Christians is underway. No, not in the Middle East, but shockingly, right here in the United States!"

"Last week, we learned through CNSNews.com that President Obama's assistant attorney general for national security, John Carlin, revealed that the Department of Justice (DOJ) is creating a new agency called the "Domestic Terrorism Counsel," to combat the "real and present threat" of domestic terrorism..."

"And who are they identifying as posing that threat? Christians!"

"Even more troubling is the fact that the DOJ is depending on the Southern Poverty Law Center (SPLC) to help root out domestic terrorists. In earlier messages, we explained how the SPLC operates, placing groups — including conservative, Christian groups — on its "Hate List" based on their ideology, not their propensity for violence. Liberty Counsel has been added to that list!" writes Staver.

The Southern Poverty Law Center \(SPLC\) has the following list on their website. They say:

"This list of 784 hate groups, down from the 939 groups listed a year before, is based on information gathered by the Intelligence Project from hate group publications, citizen reports, law enforcement agencies, field sources, and news reports..."
