FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE ACTION ALERT

AMERICA'S FORGOTTEN HISTORY: "7TH Amendment ignored"

September 24, 2015 – Gary DeMar posted an article on godfatherpolitics.com. It was titled, "America's Forgotten (On Purpose) Christian History."

The first two paragraphs stated, "Islam is antithetical to Christianity and the founding of the United States. Anyone who is curious about America's history should know this. But because of our government schools and the claim of religious neutrality (atheism), most public (government) school students have never been introduced to America's Christian history. What follows is a small slice of that history."

"The first order of business of the newly formed first United States Congress was to appoint chaplains. The Right Reverend Bishop Samuel Provost and the Reverend William Linn became publicly paid chaplains of the Senate and House respectively. Since then, both the Senate and the House have continued regularly to open their sessions with prayer. Nearly all of the fifty states make some provision in their meetings for opening prayers or devotions from guest chaplains. Few if any saw this as a violation of the First Amendment." Read more at: godfatherpolitics.com

In addition, the American Resistance Party condemns non-Christian persons that attempt to divorce the Christian religion from the public square. The 7th Amendment states all law must be "according to the rules of the common law." Common law (aka Natural Law) (aka God's Law), is Biblical law as per the Old and New Testament.
