September 8, 2015 – Video: Utah Dad Speaks About Common Core

*Oak Norton's educational research story began when he asked his daughter's third grade teacher why she hadn't been learning the multiplication tables and was told, "We don't do that anymore." That day, he bought multiplication flashcards for his daughter, realizing that it was time to take education back into his own hands. This led to his many years of research on education reform, condensed in this one-hour presentation. Mr. Norton shares the concentrated top of his research iceberg, discussing the historical roots of compulsory (forced government) education and answering why there is such a defined socialist agenda for national education. That defined agenda includes teaching sex ED to five-year-old school children; officially tracking children from birth through the workforce; and central planning by the government of all education, including preschools. SEE VIDEO (at 12:05) The 4 signs of a Communist takeover of a country:
