DONALD TRUMP: 'Concealed Carry a Right, Not a Privilege'

January 12, 2016 – breitbart.com posted an article titled, "Donald Trump: 'Concealed Carry a Right, Not a Privilege.'" They quoted Mr. Trump in a policy paper released to explain the importance of key Second Amendment issues. In the policy paper Donald Trump explained that the push for national right for concealed carry recognition is one that needs to succeed. Trump explained:

"The right of self-defense doesn't stop at the end of your driveway. That's why I have a concealed carry permit and why tens of millions of Americans do too. That permit should be valid in all 50 states. A driver's license works in every state, so it's common sense that a concealed carry permit should work in every state. If we can do that for driving – which is a privilege, not a right – then surely we can do that for concealed carry, which is a right, not a privilege."

Trump also used the policy paper to mock the idea of describing an entire category of guns as "assault weapons." He explained:

"Opponents of gun rights try to come up with scary sounding phrases like "assault weapons," "military-style weapons" and "high capacity magazines" to confuse people. What they're really talking about are popular semi-automatic rifles and standard magazines that are owned by tens of millions of Americans. Law-abiding people should be allowed to own the firearm of their choice."

Even though Mr. Trump is a candidate of another party (Republican) the American Resistance Party stands with Trump in declaring that concealed carry is a 1st Amendment RIGHT. The only reason the government could take away that right of a sovereign citizen is if that gun was used in the commission of a crime.
