CHICAGO AIRPORT COPS Told to "Run and Hide"

January 5, 2016 – Onan Coca posted today and article titled, "Chicago Cops "Protecting Us" at O'Hare Airport Told to "Run and Hide" in Active Shooter Situation." The article reports"

"You may not believe this, but at Chicago's O'Hare Airport (one of the nation's busiest airports), police officers are not allowed to carry firearms and are taught to "run and hide" in an active shooter situation.

Before you suggest it – no, these are not "rent-a-cops" or untrained "security" guards. These are true-blue, professionally trained and sworn police officers.

But these nearly 300 aviation police officers, also known as aviation security officers, are not allowed to carry guns at Chicago's O'Hare and Midway airports.

*The officers who are armed are from the Chicago Police Department, which is the primary law enforcement agency at O'Hare and Midway." Read more at: Told to "Run and Hide"

A chiding commenter on this webpage wrote: It's not like security personnel at ORD are completely without defense. According to CNN, California schools are teaching their students to throw cans of food at shooters. If it works for schools, it MUST work at the airport!

W.F. Burns Middle School sent a letter to parents on January 9 [2015], asking parents to arm their children with canned food to throw at shooters. The letter states that the cans can be used to possibly stun or knock out an intruder long enough for police to arrive. (CNN)
