FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE ACTION ALERT

SALT LAKE CITY Ted Cruz Ballot Challenge

February 3, 2016 – FACEBOOK POST: #SUE #TedCruz NOW! - A #Utah man has filed a federal #lawsuit against Republican presidential #candidate #Ted #Cruz, claiming he is NOT a natural-born #citizen and thus, can NOT be #President of the United States. Walter Wagner filed the lawsuit on his own in U.S. District #Court in Salt Lake City. He claims Cruz's parents were seeking #Canadian citizenship at the time of his birth. "It's an issue that I think needs to be addressed," Wagner told Fox 13. Wagner says he is a political independent with no current favorite candidate, but the #Constitution CLEARLY bars Canadian born Cruz from holding the nation's highest office. "The Cruz family were living in #Canada, working as Canadians, wanting to become Canadian citizens, registering with the Canadian government to be voters," Wagner said. Wagner's lawsuit, filed in federal court, has been assigned to 10th Circuit #Justice Jill Parrish. The suit says in part:

"Defendant is seeking a U.S. government employment position (#President) that #constitutionally REQUIRES a status of being "natural born" which REQUIRES either birth in the U.S.A. with intentions to reside in the U.S.A. by the parents if they are non-citizens, or birth outside the U.S.A. or its territory with both parents as U.S.A. citizens; or birth outside the U.S.A. or its territory with one parent a U.S.A. citizen and intentions to soon after birth reside in the U.S.A. and not having intentions to have residency or citizenship in a foreign (non-U.S.A.) country."

Wagner only seeks to have Cruz declared #ineligible to be president. He is not asking for a jury trial. Fox 13 called and emailed the Cruz campaign for comment with no response. Cruz has brushed aside the controversy, saying his birth to an American mother makes him a natural born citizen. The lawsuit was filed last week and no hearings have been scheduled in the matter.

Time being of the essence: This election is ALREADY being STOLEN! #Rubio IS an #AnchorBaby, ALL those #delegates ARE THROWN AWAY. If we ALL file #suit against this #DISHONEST #CRIMINAL act, we MAY stop it!
