FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE ACTION ALERT

DONALD TRUMP Repeating the LGBT Talking Points

April 23, 2016 – Statement of EDWARD C NOONAN, 2016 Presidential Candidate:

"On April 22, 2016 Mat Staver, of Liberty Counsel wrote the following, "Presidential candidate Donald Trump has now joined the ranks of misinformed people speaking on North Carolina's Public Facilities and Security Act, while discounting the rights of people of faith.

Those who criticize this law probably have either failed to read and understand it, or they intentionally misrepresent it.

Presidential candidate Donald Trump recently told the Today Show that transgenders should "use the bathroom that they feel is appropriate" and North Carolina is "paying a big price" because of intense corporate pressure and boycotts.

*While speaking correctly about the "big price" North Carolina is paying because of corporate strong-arming, Mr. Trump, like many others, is erroneously repeating the LGBT talking points and speaking out of ignorance of the law and the core issue.

The purpose of the NC law was to create uniformity of regulation within the state regarding the use of public facilities. It is a commonsense law that protects the privacy and safety of women and girls. Private institutions are free to enact their own usage standards.

We know and understand the law – and have offered our legal assistance!

North Carolina is now one of 29 states which do not recognize "sexual orientation" and "gender identity" as protected classes at the state level for purposes of public accommodations. Contrary to the messages trumpeted by radical LGBT promoters, these legal positions are not to discriminate or promote discrimination against homosexual and transgender lifestyles."
