FOREIGNERS IN MEXICO Forbidden to Engage in Politics

May 03, 2016 – Statement of EDWARD C NOONAN, 2016 Presidential Candidate:

The photos of 10-12 year old Mexican illegal aliens “flipping off” supporters of a certain political party has made national news.

The American Resistance Party wants to remind American voters that such activity is unconstitutional in Mexico:

Foreigners in Mexico Cannot Engage in Political Activity

The Mexican Constitution states very clearly that "Foreigners shall not in any way involve themselves in the political matters of the country" This is emphatically interpreted to mean that foreigners do not have the right to vote, run for public office, or participate in any political event, rally or demonstration. Additionally, foreigners should stay away from all political activity including any kind of demonstration or protest even if you think it is seemingly on-political. Engaging in these kinds of activities is a good way to be asked to leave the country.
