FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE ACTION ALERT

FEDERAL JUDGE Gonzalo Paul Curiel is not an US citizen?

June 13, 2016 – Statement of EDWARD C NOONAN, 2016 Presidential Candidate:

Since I am a long time genealogist, I have researched the Judge that Donald Trump speaks of. Trump called the Federal Judge Gonzalo Paul Curiel a “Mexican”. A study of Mr. Curiel does not show proof that he is a U.S. citizen even though his skimpy bios claim that he is one. His judgeship bio states the following:

Gonzalo Paul Curiel (born 1953) in East Chicago, Indiana, the youngest of four children. Their parents, Salvador and Francisca, had emigrated from Mascota, which is a small Mexican town near Puerto Vallarta in the state of Jalisco. Salvador worked as a laborer in Arizona before moving to Indiana where he worked in the steel mills. Curiel's parents married in 1946 and (claims) to have later become American citizens.

In addition there are absolutely NO RECORDS showing this Federal Judge can prove his citizenship. His bio is as void as that of Mr. Barry Soetoro:

- The Confirmation Hearings recorded as the: PRESENTATION OF GONZALO P. CURIEL, NOMINEE TO BE U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE FOR THE DISTRICT OF CONNECTICUT BY HON. RICHARD BLUMENTHAL, A U.S. SENATOR FROM THE STATE OF CONNECTICUT merely states the following about the citizenship of this Federal Judge - "He was born in East Chicago, Indiana. He's the son of immigrant parents from Mexico, who came to this country with an elementary school education." (the father supposed came to America with an elementary school education.)
- There are no Immigration & Travel records for neither Salvador Curiel, nor Francisca Curiel between 1895-1964 (See: Border Crossings: From Mexico to U.S., 1895-1964).
- There are no Mexico Baptisms, 1560-1950 discovered for ANY of the Curiel family.
- Nor were there any records under U.S., Naturalization Records - Original Documents, 1795-1972 (World Archives Project) for either a Salvador or Francisca Curiel.
- This leads me to believe that the so-called judge's parents were illegal aliens and never were naturalized through the American court system like they were supposed to do, if they actually became U.S. Citizens.

The American Resistance Party does not believe the so-called judge has offered enough proof to prove that he is eligible to be any sort of a U.S. Judge of any kind.
