COMMON LAW DEMANDS Hillary Clinton be charged with her Felonies

July 07, 2016 – Statement of EDWARD C NOONAN, 2016 Presidential Candidate:

Three months ago westernjournalism.com reported that Comey investigated Hillary Clinton's crimes before in 1996. westernjournalism.com reports the following:

"Time reports that 20 years ago, Comey was a deputy special counsel on the Senate Whitewater Committee, looking into the conduct of then President Bill Clinton and the first lady.

The alleged wrongdoing directed at Hillary Clinton was akin to her current email scandal: mishandling of documents related to a criminal investigation. The New York Times reports that when Clinton's former law partner Vince Foster met an untimely death at 48 (reportedly by suicide), the first lady had Whitewater papers that he had in his law office taken to the White House, where they were locked away.

Comey found Hillary Clinton's conduct unacceptable. Time reports:

In 1996, after months of work, Comey came to some damning conclusions: Hillary Clinton was personally involved in mishandling documents and had ordered others to block investigators as they pursued their case. Worse, her behavior fit into a pattern of concealment: she and her husband had tried to hide their roles in two other matters under investigation by law enforcement.

*Taken together, the interference by White House officials, which included destruction of documents, amounted to "far more than just aggressive lawyering or political naiveté," Comey and his fellow investigators concluded. It constituted "a highly improper pattern of deliberate misconduct."

The American Resistance Party demands that the 20 year criminal spree of Hillary Clinton end and she be held accountable for the felonies that she commits. Common Law mandates that all FELONIES be addressed immediately by the judicial system. Failure to do so is unconstitutional. (See CA Constitution ARTICLE 1 DECLARATION OF RIGHTS - Section 14).
