FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE ACTION ALERT

PETITION: Don't punish Chaplains for Praying

August 02, 2016 – Statement of EDWARD C NOONAN, 2016 Presidential Candidate:

American Center for Law and Justice (ACLJ) writes:

Anti-Christian extremists are attacking military chaplains for praying.

The absurdly named Military Religious Freedom Foundation (MRFF) is demanding senior chaplains (including the two-star Air Force Chief of Chaplains) be investigated and punished for praying in uniform . . . at a religious freedom event.

MRFF actually claims chaplains use Christianity “as a weapon to intimidate, menace, harass, subdue, and terrify their otherwise helpless armed forces subordinates.”

It's ludicrous and dishonoring to those who serve our nation.

MRFF's leader calls Christians in the military “monsters who terrorize,” compares them to jihadists, and demands Christian generals be court martialed for their faith.

Now it wants to use the Department of Defense as a weapon to eviscerate religious freedom in the military.

We've defeated these unconstitutional attacks before. Our senior military team – including a former Senior-Ranking Army Chaplain at the Pentagon – is fighting back, preparing critical legal letters.

Take action to protect religious liberty and honor military chaplains.
