FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE ACTION ALERT

OUR PATIENCE HAS BEEN Put To The Test In Mexico

August 31, 2016 – Statement of EDWARD C NOONAN, 2016 Presidential Candidate:

Donald Trump may meet with the President of Mexico this evening. The American Resistance Party wishes to point out this following article written...

100 years ago today... (August 31, 1916)

This article is about Charles Warren Fairbanks (May 11, 1852 – June 4, 1918) was an American politician who served as a Senator from Indiana from 1897 to 1905 and as 26th Vice President of the United States from 1905 to 1909 (served as VP with Theodore Roosevelt).

Here the news paper, Evening times-Republican, August 31, 1916 (Marshalltown, Iowa) reports of the problems at the Mexican border. They write:

"We regard the dealings of president with Mexico as vacillating. He has been given a free hand and had no one to blame for what he had done or failed to do except himself, have tried, so far as my influence would go, to uphold his hands, regardless of whether we agreed among ourselves as to the soundness of his policy. In foreign affairs we have, always been loyal to our constitutional leader. Our patience has been put to the test in Mexico. We have sharply disagreed with the president but have stood by him, nevertheless. We have seen things, go from bad to worse; we have seen the butchery of our countrymen upon both sides of the border; we have seen millions of dollars worth of property destroyed, but we have steadfastly supported him, and shall continue to do so until the close of the chapter of his power. A settlement day is now at hand, not between the president and Mexico, but between the president and the electors of the United States. Our patience, is exhausted and we believe our national "interest requires a new deal."

the United States. Our patience, is exhausted and we believe our national "interest requires a new deal."
