The American Resistance Party (aka Edward C. Noonan) is currently on the mailing list of the Eagle Forum and has been since 2007 or so. Her guidance on women's issues, pro-life activities and other social issues will be sorely missed.

dailycaller.com wrote: "Schlafly has noticed a disturbing trend among immigrants from Latin American countries that further erodes the traditional family unit. "They try to tell you they're very pro-family, but they have a tremendously high illegitimacy rate," she said."

"According to the author, this illegitimacy rate leads many to depend on the government for their needs, rather than the family. This makes for weak families in Schlafly's opinion and diminishes the core values that underlie America."

"When a woman has children without a husband to provide for her, she runs to 'Big Brother' government to support her," she insisted. "There are people who think that they will profit by giving us big government to run our lives. That's not the American way. That's not what we wanted. When we started out, we were a country of intact families and we expanded to build the greatest middle-class in the world — prosperous and happy."

"That seems to be gone now."
