WE THE PEOPLE ASK THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO CHANGE AN EXISTING ADMINISTRATION POLICY:

Release FBI Documents Withheld Due to "Lack of Public Interest"

Created by C.S. on August 29, 2017

FBI records management section chief David M. Hardy has rejected a FOIA request to release records held by the FBI on Hillary Clinton.

"You have not sufficiently demonstrated that the public's interest in disclosure outweighs personal privacy interests of the subject...It is incumbent upon the requester to provide documentation regarding the public's interest in the operations and activities of the government before records can be processed pursuant to the FOIA,."

The assumption made by Mr. Hardy that such a release is not in the public interest is invalid and the FBI should immediately release these documents.
