FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE ACTION ALERT

1/3 OF IDAHO REPS SAY:
Back Off Bundy Ranch Case

9/5/17 – EDWARD C NOONAN, Former 2012 & 2016 Presidential Candidate alert:

On September 3, 2017 freedomoutpost.com posted an article titled, "1/3 of Idaho Reps Call on AG Sessions to Back Off Bundy Ranch Case: This Is "Disrespect for the Rule of Law & the Jury System"" It begins with:

Last Friday, following a meeting of Tier 1 and Tier 3 Bundy Ranch defendants in court with Judge Gloria Navarro, a trial date was set for October 10. That trial will include Eric Parker and Stephen Drexler, who have already been tried twice with hung juries and non-guilty verdicts. Now, at least a third of Idaho representatives are calling on Attorney General Jeff Sessions to put an end to the badgering of these men with trial after trial, a clear violation of the Fifth Amendment's protections against Double Jeopardy (and yes, I know the "legaleze" about mistrials, but the fact of the matter is that under that thinking, one could try someone indefinitely).

Deb Jordan, co-host of the Pete Santilli Show, shared the story of what the outcome of the meeting was with me on Friday's Sons of Liberty Radio Show. Eric and his wife Andrea also joined us for the show. You can download that episode by clicking here.

Since then, one-third of the representatives of Idaho, the state in which Parker and Drexler live, penned a letter to Attorney General Jeff Sessions asking for him relax the pursuit by Nevada prosecutors against four Idahoans who are charged or have been convicted in the 2014 Bundy Ranch standoff in Nevada.
