(Washington-DC) The GOP establishment in Washington is concerned about Judge Roy Moore's insurgent GOP primary win over incumbent Senator Luther Strange, and anti-Amnesty activists are calling DC offices today to warn Republican lawmakers they face a fate similar to Strange if they continue to push Amnesty legislation for DACA illegal immigrants such as the Dream Act or SUCCEED Act.

Roy Moore campaigned against DACA and Dream Act Amnesty and instead supported enforcing existing immigration laws and putting U.S. troops on the border. In contrast, Luther Strange refused to answer questions about DACA Amnesty for illegals while being backed by Amnesty supporters Trump and McConnell, which implied his support for DACA for illegal aliens.

Moore won by harnessing the grassroots power of the Make America Great Again (MAGA) promises of the Trump campaign, which are now under threat from Trump's reversal on immigration issues and alliance with pro-Amnesty GOP incumbents like Speaker Paul Ryan, Senators Tillis, Graham, McCain, Lankford, Hatch, and many others who support changing America's existing immigration laws to accommodate illegals instead of enforcing those laws as their oath of office requires.

"We are asking every American who opposes Amnesty for illegals to call their DC lawmakers and warn them that what happened to Luther Strange yesterday happens for them next if they don't stop their efforts to pass DACA, Dream Act, and SUCCEED Act Amnesty and start putting Americans first," explained William Gheen, while lobbying against the SUCCEED Act in DC today. "We also hope Roy Moore's historic upset will inspire the emergence of a huge wave of insurgent GOP primary candidates to challenge most Republican incumbents in 2018 while promising voters they will restore America's existing laws and oppose Amnesty for illegal immigrants as Roy Moore did."

William Gheen arrived in Washington, DC, yesterday to meet with GOP lawmakers and warn them against passing any new immigration laws while current U.S. laws mean very little due to massive under enforcement. Most Americans do not believe any new legislation will lead to better immigration or border enforcement while more than 12 million illegal aliens violate numerous U.S. laws everyday without fear of enforcement.

Thousands of Americans continue to lose their lives each year as America's current immigration laws go unenforced and DC lawmakers encourage more illegals to enter and remain in the US unlawfully by promising them Amnesty legislation that waives the current penalties of law which requires them to return to their home nations.
