FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE ACTION ALERT

SIGN PETITION:
Stop Banning Christian School Prayer

10/26/17 – EDWARD C NOONAN, Former 2012 & 2016 Presidential Candidate alert:

FROM: Jay Sekulow
ACLJ Chief Counsel

Now they're banning Christian school prayer too?

In a shocking display of anti-Christian discrimination, prayer was banned at a high school football championship game . . . between two Christian schools.

That's right, the government's state athletic association barred two Christian schools from praying. A pep talk would have been fine, but a Christian prayer was banned. Even worse, a federal judge agreed.

This type of blatant anti-Christian discrimination on campus is spreading like a virus.

We're preparing to take the case of a Christian student who was denied admission to college - because of his faith - to the Supreme Court.

We're also preparing a critical amicus brief in federal appeals court to defend the Christian schools' right to pray.

We want to file the brief on your behalf. But our urgent court deadline is tomorrow.
