TRUMP CALLS FOR Congressional Term Limits

07/14/18 – EDWARD C NOONAN, Former 2012 & 2016 Presidential Candidate alert:

msn.com in April (4/30/2018) posted an article titled, "Trump calls for congressional term limits."

They started the article with:

"President Trump signaled support on Monday for congressional term limits, saying he discussed the issue with a group of first-term lawmakers."

The American Resistance Party supports a call to term limits for all public officials. The U.S. Constitution does not allow for multiple terms. For instance, Art II states, "The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, for six Years..."

The Amendment 17 – "The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, elected by the people thereof, for six years."

It is clear that 6 years is constitutional, but nowhere does the constitution approve of multiple terms.

The CALIFORNIA CONSTITUTION states: ARTICLE 4 - LEGISLATIVE - SECTION 1.5. The people find and declare that the Founding Fathers established a system of representative government based upon free, fair, and competitive elections. The increased concentration of political power in the hands of incumbent representatives has made our electoral system less free, less competitive, and less representative. The ability of legislators to serve unlimited number of terms, to establish their own retirement system, and to pay for staff and support services at state expense contribute heavily to the extremely high number of incumbents who are reelected. These unfair incumbent advantages discourage qualified candidates from seeking public office and create a class of career politicians, instead of the citizen representatives envisioned by the Founding Fathers. These career politicians become representatives of the bureaucracy, rather than of the people whom they are elected to represent.
