AG BARR ASSIGNS DURHAM To Investigate Russia Probe

05/13/19 – EDWARD C NOONAN, Former 2012 & 2016 Presidential Candidate alert:

IT COULD ALL HIT
THE FAN NOW!...

foxnews.com posted a news story that Barr assigns US attorney in Connecticut to look into government surveillance involving Trump campaign. They report:

AG assigns US attorney to look into government surveillance involving Trump campaign.

Attorney General William Barr has appointed a U.S. attorney to examine the origins of the Russia investigation and determine if intelligence collection efforts targeting the Trump campaign were "lawful and appropriate," a person familiar with the situation told Fox News on Monday evening.

John Durham, the U.S. attorney in Connecticut, will conduct the inquiry, the source said. The move comes as the Trump administration has pushed for answers on why federal authorities conducted the surveillance -- as well as whether Democrats were the ones who improperly colluded with foreign actors.
